

Seeings of the Ages

Abraham Lincoln (1809 – 1865)

I am a slow walker, but I never walk backwards.

---

I do not think much of a man who is not wiser today than he was yesterday.

---

Whatever you are, be a good one.

---

I will study and get ready, and perhaps my chance will come.

---

Let not him who is houseless pull down the house of another, but let him work diligently and build one for himself, thus by example assuring that his own shall be safe from violence when built.

---

Will springs from the two elements of moral sense and self-interest.

---

My great concern is not whether you have failed, but whether you are content with your failure.

---

The way for a young man to rise is to improve himself in every way he can, never suspecting that anybody wishes to hinder him.

---

I will prepare and some day my chance will come.

---

I never had a policy; I have just tried to do my very best each and every day.

---

If there is anything that a man can do well, I say let him do it. Give him a chance.

---

You cannot escape the responsibility of tomorrow by evading it today.

---

Nearly all men can stand adversity, but if you want to test a man's character, give him power.

---

You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can not fool all of the people all of the time.

---

People are just as happy as they make up their minds to be.
Nearly all men can stand adversity, but if you want to test a man's character, give him power.

---

I am not bound to win, but I am bound to be true. I am not bound to succeed, but I am bound to live by the light that I have. I must stand with anybody that stands right, and stand with him while he is right, and part with him when he goes wrong.

---

With malice toward none, with charity for all.

---

That some should be rich, shows that others may become rich, and, hence, is just encouragement to industry and enterprise.

---

Always bear in mind, that your own resolution to succeed is more important than any other thing.

---

Determine that the thing can and shall be done, and then we shall find the way.

---

Always bear in mind that your own resolution to success is more important than any other one thing.

---

The best thing about the future is that it comes only one day at a time.

---

When I do good, I feel good. When I do bad, I feel bad. That's my religion.

---

Things may come to those who wait, but only the things left by those who hustle.

---

I don't like the man. I must get to know him better.

---

Common looking people are the best in the world; that is the reason the Lord makes so many of them.

---

Those who deny freedom to others, deserve it not for themselves; and under a just God, can not long retain it.

---

And in the end, it's not the years in your life that count. It's the life in your years.
